Come Out From Among Them, And Be Ye Separate

Why do I know I made the right choice? Or, did I waste away my retirement for nothing?

- I would do it all over even with the same result. I cannot tolerate my fellow brothers and sisters being systematically stripped of their rights and freedoms.
- For the preservation of life, not my own, but for my customers, I finally said no to every mandate once the vaccine was being forced. I even said no to the mask before an accident happened. In May 2021, due to a hypoxic event I experienced a NMAC.
- As a Christian wife and mother, I will always choose love and life over popularity and conformity. As a conservative, patriot and veteran, I will always apply good judgment and fight for our rights and freedoms.

If you came out from among them, you are not alone. Now, we are together and together we are stronger.
